British Ambassador Formally Apologizes for Statement

ON UNITED STATES MEXICAN POLICY

Carranza Expresses Great Satisfaction at Withdrawal of Forces

Washington, Sept. 18.—The British ambassador, Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, yesterday called at the state department and formally expressed his regret for the publication of the interview attributed to Sir Lionel Carden, British minister to Mexico, criticizing the United States for withdrawing troops from Vera Cruz. Sir Lionel now is on the ocean, homeward bound.

The interview, the ambassador explained, was contrary to diplomatic usage in general and the regulations of the British government, and therefore was unauthorized.

In the absence of Secretary Bryan, the ambassador made his explanation to Counsellor Lansing. He explained that inasmuch as the interview was printed after Sir Lionel had sailed from New York, it was impossible to obtain a denial from him without sending the text of the interview by wireless. For that reason it was likewise impossible to make a categorical denial of the statement attributed to the former minister to Mexico.

Gen. Carranza has expressed through American Consul Silliman his great satisfaction at the withdrawal of the American forces at Vera Cruz, and said he would send a formal note of thanks later.

The steamer Cristobal, chartered as an army transport, was scheduled to leave New York last evening for Vera Cruz, with the Kanran, an animal ship. The list of transports will be completed in Vera Cruz from Colon, where she has just taken a detachment of Panama canal zone troops.

These ships will be sufficient to bring the 7,200 soldiers and marines home in one expedition.

RATE APPEAL TAKEN UP.

By All Seven Members of Interstate Commerce Commission.

Washington, Sept. 18.—All seven members of the interstate commerce commission Wednesday began consideration of the petition of the eastern railroads for the reopening of the advance rate case. Only four of the commissioners are in Washington, but the roads' appeal was forwarded to the other three. No brief in opposition to the roads' appeal has been filed with the commission, but officials were said to expect that the same forces that fought the original proposal of the roads to increase their freight rates 5 per cent would reappear in due time.

There were indications that if the commission permitted a reopening the roads would confine their arguments almost entirely to new conditions, which they contend have arisen since their original appeal for a general increase in rates of 5 per cent was denied.
